Dedication

There is a special spirit that engulfs the student body of East High: that indescribable feeling when the President stands to open an assembly — when the "Leopard Song" is sung — when you see the maze of red and white on game days — that's the

Spirit of East

the theme of the 1957 Eastonia.

And it is in this spirit that we dedicate this book to our sponsor, and all sponsors, whose time, effort, and abilities are limitless.

Spirit of
LEADERSHIP

The quality of leadership is as evident in the atmosphere at East as the odor of paint is from our new auditorium. East is and always will be a school to lead, rather than one to be led. Be it the familiar sound of Mr. Larson's voice resounding over the P.A. or Booster representatives hurrying through the halls to their meeting . . . it is leadership.

Students at East achieve and lead in many fields . . . scholarship, student government, sports, and a multitude of activities. East, as a school, represents leadership and East High students represent her as leaders.

Principals

Walter C. Larson, Principal

Mr. Larson is the Univac of East High. To know him is to respect him. His fairness and warmth give him that "common touch," that keeps him close to the heartbeat of East High.

Elva Cotterell, Vice Principal

Miss Cotterell has again displayed her genius for organization. Her efforts in our curriculum department are characterized by vigorous enthusiasm and thoughtful understanding. Her help and advice have made this a better year for our student body.

Vadal Peterson, Vice Principal

Mr. Peterson has added the "Leopard spots" to his "Panther hide" in adjusting to his new surroundings. His capable handling of the activities and student government at East demonstrates his enthusiasm for his new position. We all wish him good fortune in his future years at Hilltop.

Auguste Utermann, Girls' Counselor

Taking time out of her busy day, Miss Utermann has aided and supported the activities of our girls' association. With her charming smile and attentive attitude, she has assisted many students with their personal problems and plans for the future.

Dewey Hale, Boys' Counselor

Mr. Hale calls the activities of the A. B. of E. as effectively as the rousing square dances at the school socials. All who have worked with him will confirm his pleasing and cooperative manner in solving their individual problems.

Custodians

S.A.E. Officers

Kay Bryson, Secretary

Behind Kay's smile there is a sincerity that causes her to stand out as few people do. Kay has been very active in school affairs this year and has done an unsurpassable job as secretary. Dependability, enthusiasm, and honest effort to please, will place Kay on East's ever growing honor roll of leaders.

Stan Larsen, Vice President

It took a big man to do this big job . . . Stan could and did. Homecoming will be memorable to all Hilltoppers with the outstanding organization and variety that our vice president added as finishing touches. Eciders proved they knew a good man when they say one . . . and Stan confirmed their good judgment.

Janice Russell, Historian

Our Historian has made history in more ways than one this year. First, by always being right there when we needed her, and second, not missing out on a single news clipping. Laughing and fun, a right jolly young Miss, spell out Janice, East's Historian.

Dave Backenzie, Business Manager

"Everything happens to Dave," and yet his capabilities as business manager have been an important factor in the sucess of this year's school activities. In his unpretentious manner, Dave has worked quietly, capably, and efficiently. It can truly be said that he has the Spirit of East.

Jon Lloyd, S. A. E. President

The man with the golden arm has left his golden touch penetrating the core of East High's spirit. Jon stands for all that an East High boy is: a leader; honest, determined, and capable. To you, Jon, our sincerest thanks for an unforgettable year.

Diane Anderson, President

Big "Di" has made this year great for all of East's Hags. Every activity has had a part of her own humor and personality obviously displayed, adding to their fun and gaiety. In her individual way as a president, Diane can't be equalled.

Officers

Leonard Romney, President

Bwana, Bwana, Mr. Romney's favorite colloquialism, typifies the international flavor that the A. B. of E. has added to the memorable '56-'57 year. Be it a tropic isle or a dark African hunt, Leonard has led the way with laughs and enthusiasm.

Spirit of
UNITY

All for one and one for all and all for East Side High.
As a member of the student government, or a social club, a participant in sports, on assemblies, or just an Ecider — these are the different aspects that endear the red and white school to each of us. Be it the Sophomores in the balcony . . . the Juniors enthusiastically cheering the team on to victory . . . or the Seniors proudly marching to the strains of graduation music . . . . East is Unity.

Seniors

John Wunderli
President

The success of our final year can be attributed to Wunderli, our wonderful president.

Betty Lou Sine
Vice President

Betty Lou has racked up as many points as Senior Veep as she has on the giant slalom.

Nani McEwan
Secretary

"Shir-it's" Nani for a terrific over-all job as Senior Secretary.

EDITOR

COOPERATION

The buzz of activity envelops the air as the ink stained fingers of a Leopard staff member mar the smooth plate of print before the first edition is produced. . . . sounds seep from the cracks of B-15 as the voices of A' Cappella members tune up for the anticipated performance . . . a trip to Weber is planned for the Debate Club. . . . A red and white badge advertises an usher . . . a successful lunch project is launched by the Key Club . . . Hi Club girls deliver "singing valentines" . . . The tireless energy of enthusiastic Leopards echoes through the halls of "Hilltop," displaying the boundless Spirit of Cooperation.

Spirit of

SPORTSMANSHIP

A crowd enthusiastically sporting red and white, giving a cheer for greeting to the opposing school . . . the hustle and bustle at the Pep Club's pregame exchange party . . . the warmth of a handshake expressing sincere congratulations. Not only our spirit when victorious, but also our support proudly displayed in defeat . . . this is the Spirit of Sportsmanship.

Grant Martin
Coach

Grant Martin's red shirt proved its worth in East's undefeated football season. Superstitions seemed to affect his luck positively as the statistics proved. East's population wishes Grant continued success and fifteen cheers for his accomplishments.

ASSISTANT COACHES: Ted Weight and Don Jesperson.

East 7 Olympus 0

September 21

A last minute Ecide touchdown spelled defeat for a tough Titan crew at the gridder's first conflict. After being held scoreless for three quarters, the Leopardmen dug in their heels for a successful trip to paydirt. Taking advantage of an Olympus fumble, recovered on their thirteen yard line, Daynes, Brickey, and Stohl squirmed, in consecutive plays, through the rugged Titan defense for the only touchdown of the game. Both schools scored great defensive victories with only seven first downs boasted for the entire game.

East 23 Murray 0

September 28

The Spartans from down Murray way couldn't seem to get the ball rolling as Daynes chalked up an average of 6 yards per run and as Brickey's passing arm continued to function with deadly accuracy. Jon Lloyd made the first East score on a center plunge from the one yard line. Then Malmquist caught the unforgettable 51 yard pass to rack up another seven. Brickey connected again — this time with Daynes, for 26 yards and another T.D. A Murray punt was blocked in the end zone for the last two points and a complete victory for the Hilltoppers.

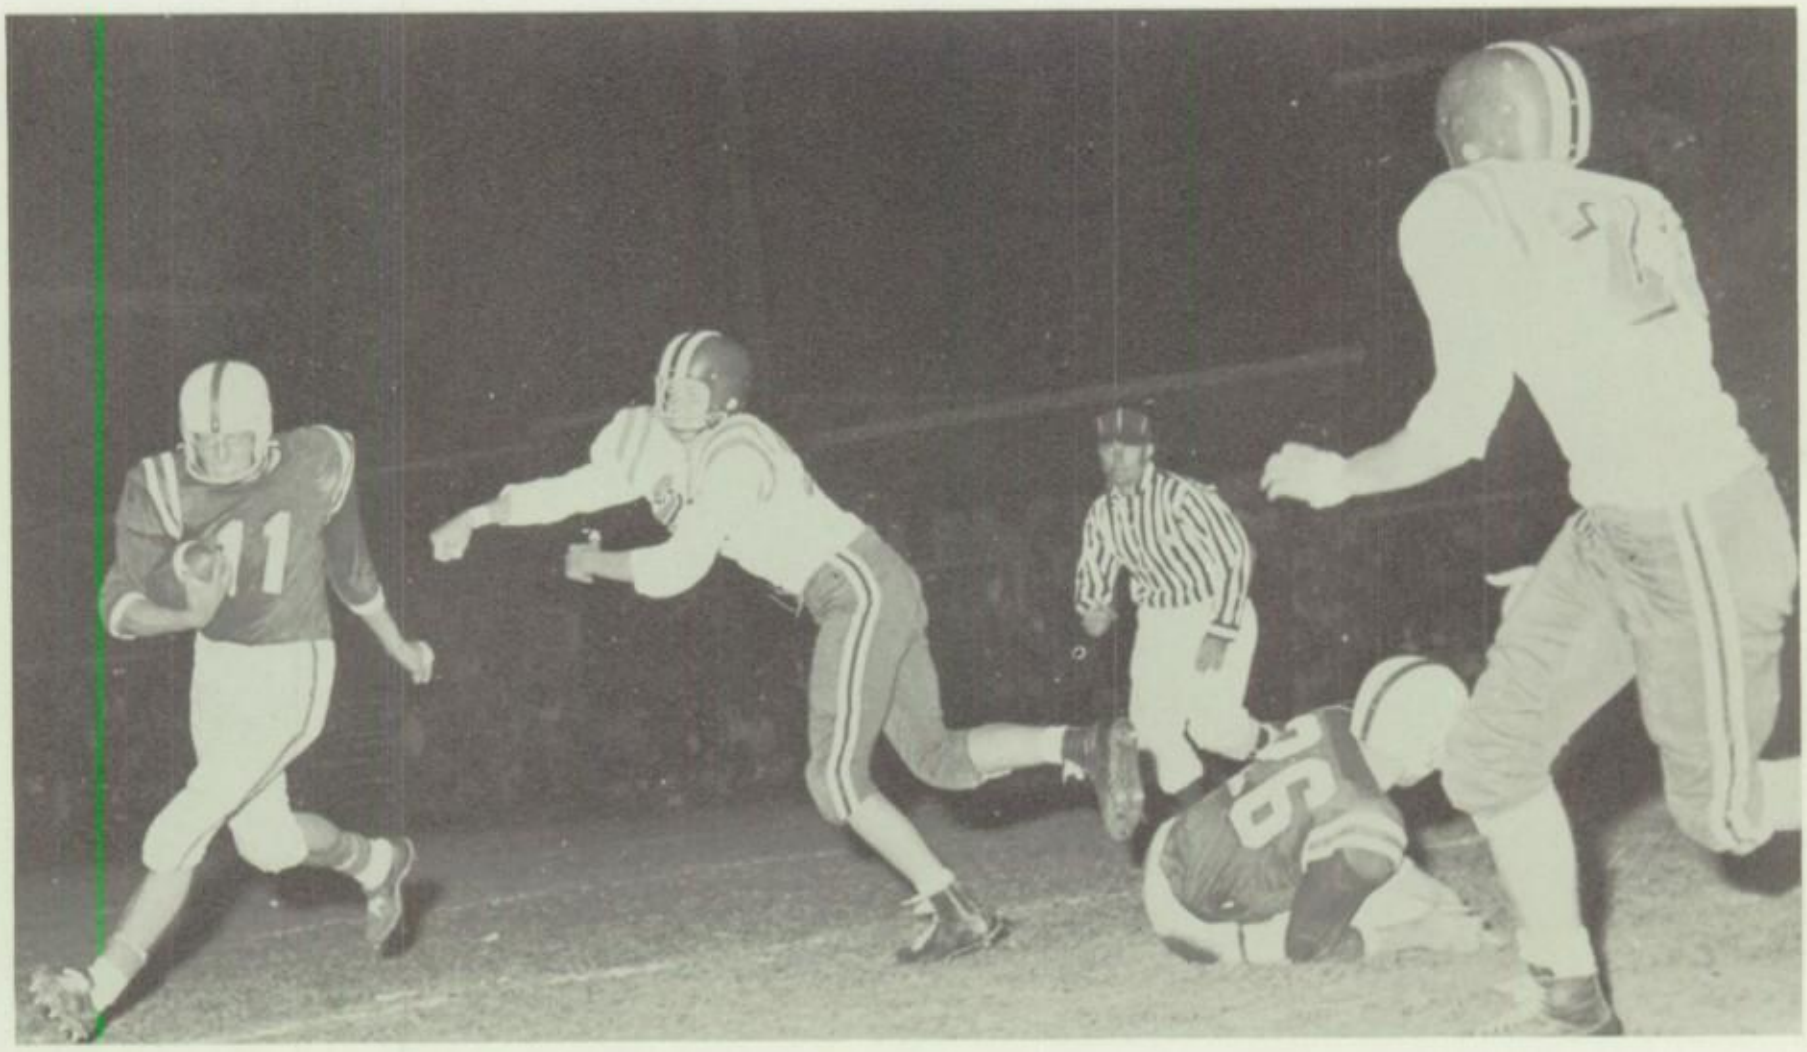
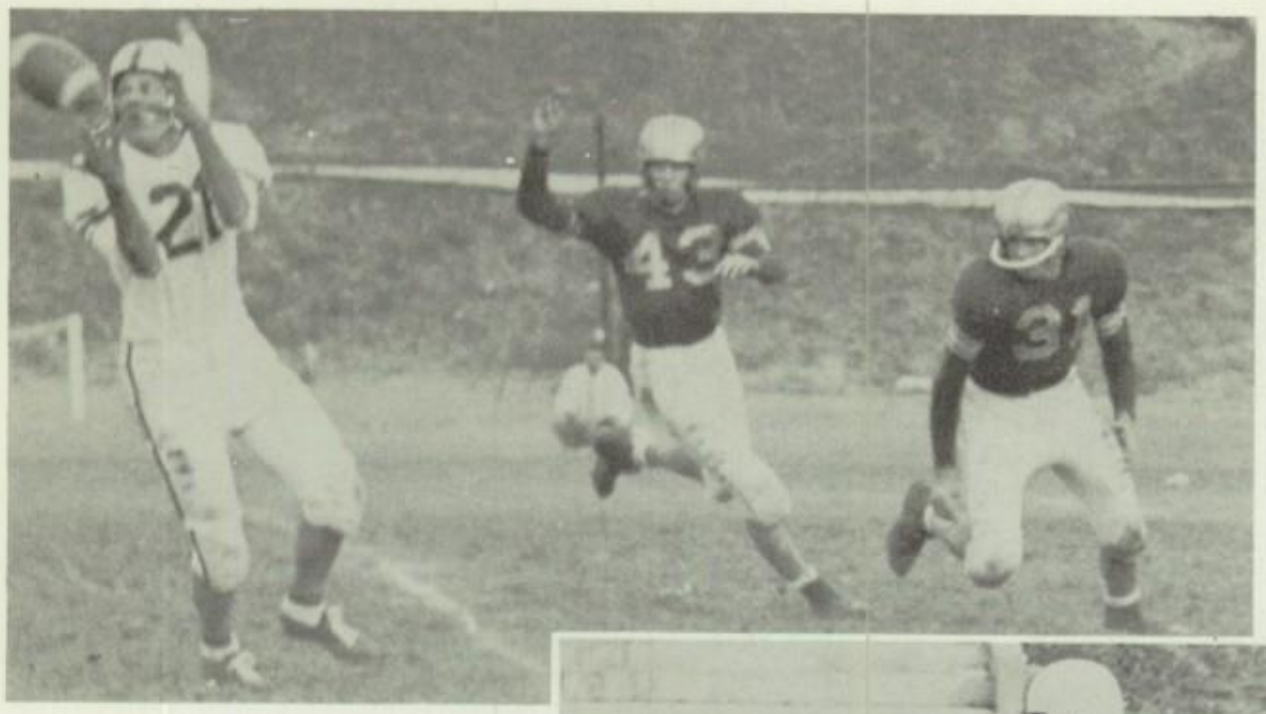
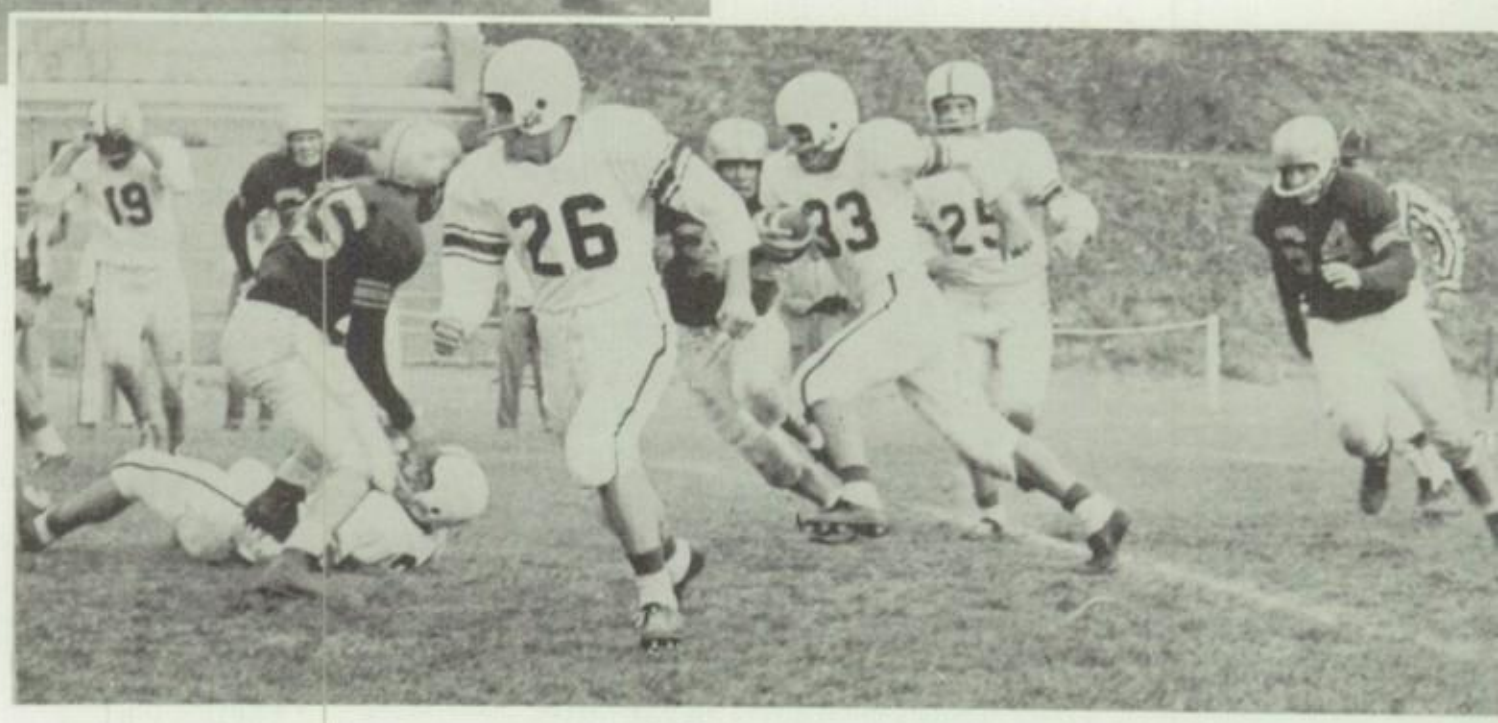
East 14 West 0

October 5

The Leopards threw a monkey wrench into an undefeated West High machine by upsetting their Homecoming plans with a 14-0 victory. Tom Felsted started things popping by blocking a Panther punt in their own end zone. Bob Daynes then scored the first touchdown on a center plunge. Keith Gardiner started the next T.D. drive by pounding on a Panther fumble to make the win decisive.







East 28 Jordan 0

October 10

This one was a record setter. The Hilltop boys gathered in 307 yards from scrimmage, and turned out a 98 yard scoring drive. The Beetdiggers were unable to hold their own against a Leopard team that literally exploded in the first half. Half time score: 22-0. A Murphy to Malmquist airmail play tallied the final six points and stamped East as undefeated.

October 19

Both ball and spirits were flying high at this game. At half time, with the scoreboard registering O-O, old and new pep clubs presented their homecoming entertainment before a tense throng of 10,000 people. It was not until midway through the third quarter, when Murphy galloped 17 yards with the pigskin he had intended to throw, tucked safely under his arm, that the break came. Two more plays brought the Leopards their 18th consecutive victory and an undisputed claim to first place in the Big Nine.

In a game that didn't begin to move until late in the fourth quarter, East again displayed their brilliant passing might. On the '30' Mel Murphy unleased the pigskin to Stohl who laid it down 19 yards nearer to pay dirt. Another Murphy-Daynes pass combined with two running plays, left us 27 yards to go. Another aerial, this time from Johnny Stohl, covered the distance and the scoreboard with another victory for the Leopards.

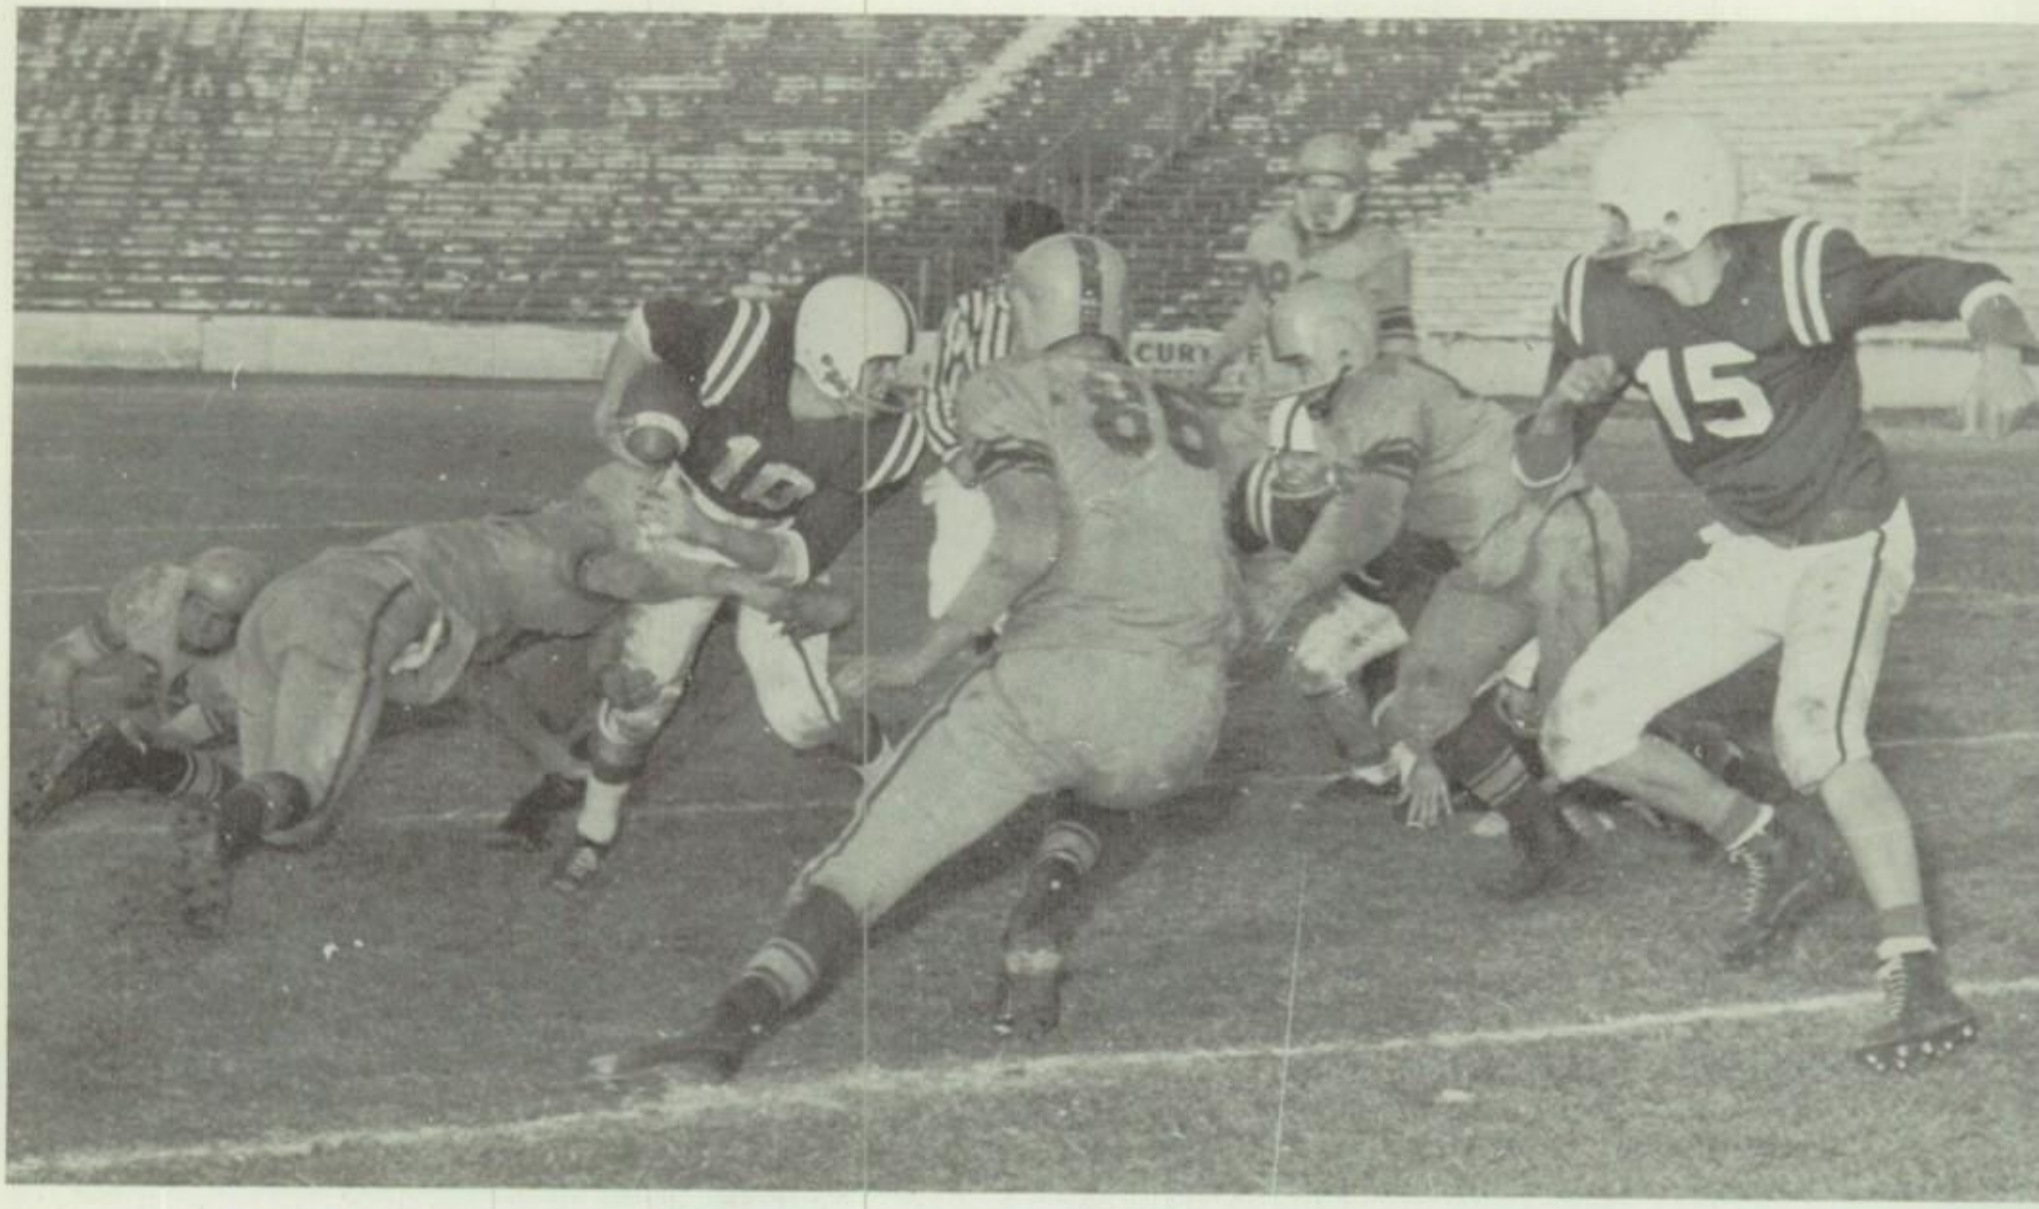
East 34 Carbon 0

November 9 — State Semi-finals

A terrific ground attack gave us our 20th consecutive win, and a bid for the State Championship. Daynes made the first tally on a center plunge, and Brickey ran 44 yards to set up the second Leopard score. Touchdowns three and four were successfully converted by Summerhays, and Murphy then ran 63 yards to set up seven more, climaxing a lopsided victory.



East 34 Logan 6

November 16 — State finals

Resplendent in red jerseys to match a fired up spirit, East again decorated itself with honor: a record of 24 straight wins, and their fourth State Championship in five years. It was like "Grant" taking Richmond. Our brilliant and varied air offense was too much for the Grizzlies to cope with. Stopped on the ground, East took to the air with Stohl, Brickey, and Murphy sending to a sticky fingered Malmquist. A great line centered around the Big Mr. Smith, cleared the way for a 34-6 victory and the 1957 State title.

Spirit of

PARTICIPATION

The things remaining in a student's mind are the zany activities in which he has participated, and such scenes as "Lefty" feverishly tearing his hair at a last minute rehearsal . . . the butterflies of stage fright . . . Beckstead at the keyboard, Bowman with baton, Young signaling the downbeat, the assembly begins. The successful class parties . . . Intermingling of costumes and confetti at the Mardi Gras . . . Backstage Bassett producing his greatest hit, "The Family Man." Who could forget the thrill of that special phone call . . . The choking tie clip . . . "Be home by twelve, dear." . . . The traditional dance . . . Transfigured Romans enjoying a twentieth century feast. . . . The sideburns and endless rehearsals for the production of Grieg's immortal "Song of Norway." A variety of activities for every personality . . . maturing the year.

In the years to come, each of us in our varied walks of life will look back on our high school days with fond remembrance — the classes, parties, dances, games, and assemblies will be relived again and again. We, the editors, hope this '37 EASTONIA will be the means by which each of you may relive this tremendous year.

Many people are deserving of credit for the publication of this book — our staff, sponsors, photographers, printers, and you the student body. To all, our sincerest thanks.

Jane Watson, Editor

Corrice Christensen, Associate Editor

IN MEMORIAM

Donna Scheid

Tom Kelley

The royal-tinted violet casts shadows on the wall.
The sun transforms this miniature, and makes the shadows tall.

And so your lives cast images much greater than
you know,
For, like the sun, our memories have helped to make them so.

Janice Randle
